Job Summary:

Pointer Ltd. are seeking a highly motivated and skilled Service Engineer to join our team. In this role, you will be responsible for inspecting, maintaining, and installing a wide range of security systems, including intruder alarms, fire alarms, CCTV, and access control systems. You will manage your workload efficiently, diagnose and repair faults, and ensure all work is completed in accordance with company standards and industry regulations. Excellent customer service is at the heart of this role, and you will be expected to deliver expert advice while maintaining a professional and approachable demeanour. You will also participate in a standby and call-out rota to respond promptly to urgent service needs. This is an exciting opportunity to work in a fast-paced, dynamic environment with the chance to make a real impact on system reliability and customer satisfaction.

Key Responsibilities:

- Inspect, maintain, and install intruder alarms, fire alarms, CCTV, and access control systems to ensure optimal performance and security.
- Manage your own workload efficiently, prioritising tasks to meet service and installation deadlines.
- Diagnose faults, repair issues, and replace components as necessary to ensure systems operate reliably and efficiently.
- Complete all necessary documentation promptly and accurately, ensuring adherence to company policies and industry regulations.
- Keep your vehicle fully stocked with essential tools and materials, ensuring maximum efficiency on-site.
- Provide exceptional customer service, offering expert advice and support while maintaining a professional, approachable demeanour.
- Actively participate in the standby and call-out rota, responding quickly and effectively to urgent service requests.
- Continuously seek to improve service delivery, identifying opportunities for enhancing customer satisfaction and operational efficiency.

Qualifications and Skills:

- Relevant qualification or equivalent experience in the electrical or security industry.
- Full, current driving license.
- Proven experience in a service environment, particularly in security systems.
- Extensive experience with access control and IP CCTV systems.

- Strong knowledge of installing and maintaining security systems, including IDS – Galaxy, IP CCTV, Fire Alarm Systems, and Access Control Systems.
- Excellent problem-solving skills and the ability to work independently.
- Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to engage customers and colleagues effectively.
- Customer-focused with a commitment to end-to-end project ownership.
- In-depth knowledge of current products and technologies within the security industry.
- Strong attention to detail, ensuring accuracy in all tasks.
- Proactive, resilient, and able to work effectively as part of a team.
- Self-motivated with a responsible, "can-do" attitude.
- An ambassador for the Pointer brand and a strong advocate of company values.
- Curious and driven to continually improve personal skills and processes.

Experience:

- Candidates should have at least 3 years of experience in the security or electrical industry, with a strong focus on the installation, maintenance, and servicing of access control, CCTV, and fire alarm systems.
- Experience with IDS – Galaxy, IP CCTV, and other security technologies is highly preferred.

Personal Attributes:

The ideal candidate will be a proactive, reliable, and customer-focused professional with a strong attention to detail. You will be able to manage your workload independently, ensuring all tasks are completed efficiently and to the highest standards. A natural problem solver, you thrive in dynamic environments and remain calm under pressure. Your excellent communication skills enable you to build and maintain positive relationships with both clients and colleagues. You are adaptable and committed to continuous improvement, always seeking new ways to enhance your skills and contribute to the success of the team. A true ambassador for the Pointer brand, you embody our values and approach every task with integrity and professionalism.
